

Honors Latin 3/Latin 3 Summer 2018

Over the summer you will be continuing working with the Cambridge Latin 3 book as well as studying Latin vocabulary for the Roman author Cicero. I have extended our online subscription for the Cambridge website and I have also provided two vocabulary lists to prepare you for the upcoming year. here are two Cicero vocabulary lists, the first has 76 words and the second, 74, for a total of 150 words. We have all ready worked on some of these words. Therefore, when we start quizzes—when school starts up again, we will start from where we left off at the end of Latin 2 semester 2. However, flashcards are required for all words. For any assignments requiring writing if you hand-write your work, please scan and e-mail it to me. Otherwise, it is best to type your work and e-mail it to me.

If you would like to save any items from the Google folder this is very easy, go to file and Download As of Make a Copy. Either option will allow you to have your own copy either on Google drive or an electronic device. You are also able to print items by going to file and print.

Cambridge Latin Unit 3: you will be assigned 2 translations as well as 2 grammar quizzes. All items including notes will be provided.

Cicero Lists I and II: You must know all the words on this list. You must make flash cards for these online or make 3x5 flash cards on physical flash cards. You will take vocabulary quizzes with 15-20 words at a time when we return to school (starting Week 2). However, the first day of school, you need to show me your finished flash cards (if online, you may send me a link).

Due July 30, 2018

Latin 3 Honors Students only: you will translate the following passage from Cicero due the first day of class.

[28] nihil est enim virtute amabilius (1), nihil quod magis alliciat ad diligendum (2), quippe cum propter virtutem et probitatem etiam eos (3), quos numquam vidimus, quodam modo (4) diligamus. quis est (5) qui C. Fabrici, M'. Curi non (6) cum caritate aliqua benevola (7) memoriam usurpet, quos numquam viderit? quis autem est qui Tarquinius Superbum, qui Sp. Cassium, Sp. Maelium (8) non oderit (9)? cum (10) duobus ducibus de imperio in Italia est decertatum, Pyrrho et Hannibale (11); ab altero (12) propter probitatem eius non nimis alienos animos habemus; alterum (13) propter crudelitatem semper haec civitas oderit.

1. amabilius – comparative adverb modifying nihil
2. ad diligendum (translation): “for valuing” or “for loving”
3. eos: direct object of diligamus; antecedent of quos
4. quo modo (translation): “in a certain manner”
5. quis est (translation): “Is there anyone”
6. non: use with usurpet
7. aliqua benevola: modifies caritate
8. Names are in the accusative; when translating change um to us
9. Use oderit with both qui clauses as the clause verb.
10. cum (translation): “with”
11. Names are in the ablative (Pyrrho = Pyrrhus and Hannibale = Hannibal); these are appositive to duobus ducibus, which means they are just renaming the ablative, and just are translated into the English form)
12. altero ... alterum (translation): “former ... latter”
